

Print and write down things you are grateful for during the winter months, put in jar to pull out later.

